Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Tuesday, April 23, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

We could call you 'faithful heart', my daughter. Your bursts of energy surprise us, after such moments of lassitude. Your desire to serve us may be the reason thereof. We appreciate your attending to this precious mail with our son. The encouragement he receives from us through this means helps him to continue and assume his heavy task. Mail of this kind is good for his heart of a sage, inured to the toughness of life. Only love guides his steps; he struggles to satisfy us and carry through his mission. That is what great beings do who have a mission and are courageous. Sahaj Marg is extending in the world, there are not enough preceptors; this is a delightful observation. The overall picture we have also shows us that there are not enough facilities. More ashrams will be necessary; we will have to do the needful. A whole system is to be set up – which entails expanding what already exists – with a strong organisation and motivated abhyasis. This imposing plan will be accomplished with time; we see to it."
