Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Thursday, April 25, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

Where we are, love reigns. There is no clan, no war, no hatred. We are all brothers; we join our efforts for the good of worlds where evil prevails. You are all advancing towards perfection; your efforts lead you to it. It is necessary to want it and to practise continually, to reach the goal. The sadhana is sovereign; if respected scrupulously, it is a precious help accessible to all. It opens doors one after the other and transforms your heart, which becomes habitable. The Mission, on this Earth, forms a great family that will keep growing. It is good for each one of you to find your bearings in it. Overcome the little human pettiness that darkens your sight and lets you see only the faults of your brothers. Go beyond these faults and see, in them, souls that are growing and advancing. Are you so perfect as to turn away? See only the good in each one; you will integrate more easily into the group. Overcome reactions that are no longer like you who have been privileged and have received the grace to go beyond these simplistic views."
