Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Thursday, April 25, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

You should rise above the miasmas of the Earth; see only the outcome of your spiritual search. Look to the top, towards light and beauty; see the world showered with divine grace, purified and glorious. Don't despair of men. Each one of them is on their way; they are fighting, struggling, in their respective ways. The prisoner in his cell deserves your prayers. He is a child of God, lost in the turbulences of this life, grappling with the evil which forces him into such excesses. You should all be brothers really, i.e., in heart and in spirit. Help one another. Sooner or later, suffering souls manage to free themselves, to return to their fatherland. Live with this great project in mind and your heart full of the desire to unite with the Divine. This day will end up coming for you. You should insist and not lose heart. The fight is long but successful. Is there anything more beautiful than this victory resulting from all your efforts and the help of your Masters? Persevere; we are with you, our blessed brothers."
