Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Friday, April 26, 2002 - 8:30 a.m.

The relationship being established between my son and you makes us happy. You had to arrive at this level of connection between you, for the continuation of our program. Prepare for another type of service, more specific, and answering the questions of your Master on specific issues. We know that you don't like these situations, which put you off your stroke.

"The two of you should overcome this problem and make yourself completely available. When you have reached this stage, all will be well. Your gifts have been refined; do you realise the easiness with which you receive us!

"Reserve for us almost all your capabilities in this area; we will be able to set up the project that is close to our heart. We will not insist any longer this morning; you have enough to cogitate on.

"Good sitting."
