Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Saturday, April 27, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

With the passing of time, we have, page after page, addressed all the subjects. You can refer to them. You have read them superficially and you can revert to them; you will discover other aspects thereof that had escaped you.

"You have made progress since then; your spiritual landscape has extended beyond even what you can imagine. All these years of steadfastness have transformed you deeply. On the face of it, you have not changed and yet, your double has grown in importance. Your spiritual bodies were shaped and thickened; they evolve and lead you. You are no longer the same. Going very far back would be testing, but that cannot be; you can only continue to advance, if you so want. You know the pitfalls to be avoided; there are many of them. We have pointed them out time and again. You are at the controls of the ship; it depends only on you to make it take the right course. The compass is there to guide you; it is not mistaken, it is reliable. Make sure you make the necessary provisions which do not allow you to be diverted from your goal.

"Nothing, and nobody, deserves such a sacrifice; you can believe us. Time will show you the accuracy of our remarks."
