Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Saturday, April 27, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

Keep cheerfulness in your heart. You have good reasons for that, just like all of you who are reading us, since the future – as it is dawning – is not gloomy. Life does not end here on this Earth. It continues on its trajectory well beyond, and evolves towards perfection. You have spaces yet to be conquered, therefore, you should have the mindset of conquerors. Be audacious, go off to explore [them]; start off by exploring the unknown meanders of your own heart. It holds surprises for you; don't believe that you know everything about it. You deem it submissive, without originality; isn't it you, rather, who lack that? Are you dynamic in your sadhana?

"Start off by driving away your lassitude when you begin your practice.

"Interiorise yourself with joy, by expending all the love possibly existing in your heart. Win its trust so that it is free and happy. It will lead you into another universe where peace exists, where the wounds of this world cannot have a hold on you. Become giants in that world where beauty reigns, where evil does not take root any more, since it is not any more in its favourite land. Intensely make the most of these dives [within] full of a sovereign charm, given that it is Divine."
