Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Wednesday, May 1, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

The Medium: "Babuji, a wave of purity and love has run across the Earth, propelled by your divine breath. My heart still feels it today."

y daughter, your heart, as well those of our brothers faithful in their devotion, have received it with fervour. This divine grace will leave an imprint on them. Many have followed this Remembrance Day, a break for all and a means of consolidating bonds of friendship between our candidates. This aspect is not negligible; the Mission needs it to grow harmoniously. Don't forget that united we stand, divided we fall; if all men wanted to unite for the good, the world would change radically. This union, within a spiritual community, can propel it to the highest level. Make sure you pass over your differences, for they are only superficial. Your hearts are turned towards us; they have the same faith in the system that we propose to them, the same aspiration to be united with the Divine. Being in agreement on what is essential, why could they not overcome human reactions, [which are] of no importance? These gatherings unite hearts; they give them great strength.

"It remains for you to make choices, as in all circumstances of life. Here, we are in a special field, spiritual and sacred. May you go to the main thing, seeing only the divine greatness."
