Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Monday, May 6, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

Withdraw yourself in this protected bastion where you can cut yourself off from the matters of the world. Here there are no noises, no waves, and no turbulences of any sort. You can again find serenity, and what you regard as being most important in your life: the peace of heart that results in an approach to the Divine. Its emanations float to it. It can thrive on its benefits. Nothing else is important any more; disappointments, trickery, no longer have any hold on it. It feels happy in this vibration of love, which does not change – unlike as with humans. They are not reliable as they are themselves subjected to the vagaries of life. Faith is a protection; it helps man to live and understand the thousand and one facets of this life, and the human being.

'Trying to decipher this mysterious code is not an easy task. Man is caught in the swirl of this incarnation, without realising very well what happens to him. He who aspires only to stability is surprised, often disconcerted and caught off guard by the suddenness of events. He passes life on this Earth like the pilgrim who goes looking for his own truth."
