Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Tuesday, May 7, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

You see, my daughter, we still have much to say. Humanity has many facets. It is at the same time foreseeable and surprising, in terms of its eagerness to reproduce the same mistakes. It seems that time does not improve men. They are ready, at the slightest little thing, to kill each other for stupid ideas. Finer feelings disappear quickly, blinded by passions. This country, like so many others, does not escape the rule. People will end up calming down and finding a more right vision of the facts and things. They should not make you forget the most important thing, hence the reason for this reading you are doing now. There is no plot, no treason, no violence, at least on our side. If you want to follow us on a non-mine field, you should quickly forget this verbal jousting, which does not bring about anything good. Words can be as devastating as grenades by leaving in the heart non-assessable wounds. Choose them [words], in yours [hearts], to address your Masters, God, the Guru of the gurus who expect of beings only their best."
