Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Wednesday, May 8, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

By entrusting your heart to our care as you do, you give it all its chances. It needs solid protection to follow its road, without letting itself be diverted from the best route. Man moves in a dangerous world. He must constantly avoid the pitfalls. They are of all sorts; by taking precautions from all sides, his initial purity cannot be affected. The best of his self is thus protected. His divine nature requires all [his] attention. It does not reconcile itself to human turbulences, and calls for serenity. You, who are wise, you chose to follow this way; its accents make sacred canticles resonate in you and touch the right chord. You are making progress and you call the graces more and more, which will distinguish you from your fellow men not yet introduced into the benefit of a true process which makes one enter smoothly into the reality of the being. Let yourself be led; the way is long and pitfalls can arise at every moment. It is enough to know how to thwart them while advancing with a serene heart and surrendered to the guidance of the Master you have actually chosen."
