Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Thursday, May 9, 2002 - 5:00 p.m.

My dear daughter, you find yourself in a transitional period; you should get new bearings and see your life from a different perspective. What you have been doing over many years to serve us has transformed you deeply. You must go in another direction, under the aegis of your Master. We expect from you a different type of service, which will be notified to you. Don't worry; we will not ask for the impossible from you. We know your capabilities and your limits. You have already given much of yourself – by your love of serving and by loving, quite simply. You have achieved very good work, which will have to be utilised as soon as the situation allows it. It could be that that time is not as distant as you think, and that in some countries, some tentative printing can be made. Let's wait for the right moment; nothing should be rushed. Some countries in the world are more open than others to this practice of possible communication with the beyond. There is a time for everything. These messages will be very well received and they will help many candidates to spirituality. They will remain in their memories as being the best genre: a teaching that will gain widespread acceptance."
