Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Sunday, May 12, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

Do you believe that beings in whom we trusted did not turn their backs on us too? In this world, such facts are commonplace. Mankind, by nature, is changeable, touchy and motivated by contradictory feelings; and sometimes, the best ones do not prevail. Their behaviours are changing, and unforeseeable; therefore, don't be so affected. Nothing lasts forever. Humans love change, including with regard to their feelings; don't you see it around you in all the relationships that they keep? The important thing is elsewhere, and you know it. Is there not a permanent feature in your heart? And don't you perceive all the love generated by yours in return? Did this relationship disappoint you on any day? Here, you can advance serenely; nothing will change in this field. You love and you are loved; disappointment will not be at the end of this long path followed in confidence and surrender. You will not be 'abandoned' along the way.

"This kind of love is gratifying because it is immutable; let your heart be at peace and reassured."
