Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Sunday, May 12, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

Why do you think we glorify love, that which does not change? Because it does not belong to this world and it is unequalled here. The only reliable thing man possesses is this reference, this reality, which he cannot sense and assess at its true worth, hence his helplessness in many circumstances. Life on this Earth is not reassuring. Nothing is acquired; anything can be lost in one moment: a dear one, a tangible property. Everything changes and is transformed according to the times. He belongs to this system and he complies with it himself, insofar as he is changeable in his feelings and his attachments. There is only one permanent feature in his life: the love he receives from his Creator – irrespective of whether he is aware of it or not. The love he can give Him back is itself changeable, according to his mood and the way in which his life evolves. Sometimes, dramas divert him completely from this divine source. He does not accept the tests, those which touch him in his deepest being. They also have their opposite, the capacity to kindle in him a feeling of gratitude that clears the way to divine love."
