Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, April 10, 1999 – 5:00 p.m.

You are going through a difficult stage. We are surrounding you particularly.
You will soon benefit from all this work.
You are purifying yourself; your different bodies are being divinized.
Do not fear to write it; it is reality.
You will make some envious, but haven't you done so all your life?
We are forging your soul like a precious stone, so that it becomes a pure jewel.
Can't we be satisfied with our work?
You will have to get used to this kind of comment about you.
Act as if you were not concerned, thus you will not be embarrassed!
Be at peace, my child.
Until tomorrow.
