Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

We warn you against dissecting these messages. They have their raison d'être as they are. The fact of conducting an in-depth study together, aimed at highlighting some aspects, is not bad per se, since it is meant to greatly benefit each one and to reinforce the links between you. Nevertheless, as we have already said, it is necessary to be cautious with any process in which one would feel tempted, in the future, to extract 'passages' which seem more interesting than others. Individual tastes and feelings being different, that could lead to these messages being pulled to pieces. Therefore, you should think of all that and act as best you can. It was good to underline these important aspects. Your interest in these writings gives a special element to your process. It widens the scope of your comprehension and helps you to advance in this spiral in which you are engaged. We wish it to be like that for each one of our candidates; time will decide. We encourage you to continue in your current spirit. We follow your progress."
