Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

In the future, important work will be done with these messages, in which there is a matter for work, and which will be found to have something appealing in them. Their simplicity is more evocative than certain texts that claim to be erudite, but which do not touch the heart. In the heart is the seat of the soul as well as a leaven surpassing the human condition. It is the heart that must be reached and convinced of the need for men to surpass themselves, and to change deeply. Life on this Earth is the best university. The most reputable in your societies do not clear the way to the subjects we treat. This teaching is intended for seekers of another kind who already have a sound asset in this kind of investigation that is of interest to us here. It [investigation] can accommodate a broad range of intellectual capabilities; we are here in a special and non-selective field. Each one can make their way in this area, far from all the criteria required in the current era, which will inevitably sink into decline concerning all that it [the current era] believes it has built. That is how it has always been, from time immemorial. True values are elsewhere; only they matter. A wise man knows it already; he works towards perfecting the best assets in himself."
