Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Saturday, May 25, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

May your heart be at peace; we are used to visiting it with great regularity. We are not really separated; you have a privileged status that allows you to benefit, each day, from our presence. How could this work be achieved without this special relationship? People's minds are opening; the majority of our candidates will admit the principle of these messages. I was privileged to open the way in this respect; my autobiography proves it. All serious spiritual ways known in the world were informed in this manner. The great, recognised Masters, some of whose teachings became official religions, were inspired in their doctrines by this kind of content, whether they admitted as such or not. It will actually be necessary one day to arrive at that, and admit the veracity of this kind of communication. Dishonesty manifests itself in this field, as in any other, but does not change for that matter the reality of the phenomenon. It is not new; it has always been like that. And although the current world is restrictive regarding this possibility of exchange, it exists and it helps humanity in its long and painful search. May this teaching, one day, benefit all our associates, as well as the greatest number."
