Whispers from The Brighter World

A Third Revelation

Sunday, May 26, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

Hatred is growing on the Earth. At the dawn of this century, it is taking on proportions that hold the world up to scorn. A frenzied state of mind is developing, fomenting appalling acts. This escalation is not easy to curb and it will inevitably reach its height. It remains for men to love, compensating for all this hatred. Humanity is at a turning point in its evolution; evil must be eradicated at all costs. We try to put a balm on the wounds of humanity, but this work does not translate into palpable facts. We cannot go into explanations; they would not benefit you. Our rules and our laws do not tally with those of this planet, which diverge completely from the established order, the universal and divine order. Everything should be re-examined and recreated, because since this civilisation is built on unsteady foundations, it is only drifting towards evil. This Earth deserves another status; more and more noble souls are waking up thereon, trying to neutralise the devastating effects of the hatred that we have just mentioned. Will a great step in this direction be enough? Let us work together to this end."
