Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Wednesday, May 29, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

Your Master-to-disciple relationship is evolving favourably. You see, it is enough to let yourself be guided, and you are easily in tune with one another, in thought and action. Your confidence justifies his, and your surrender motivates his action. This progress is subtle; it takes place slowly, building a special relationship which is reflected in your contacts. You look in the same direction, he guides you on the path, and the love that nurtures your souls carries your steps. We are happy to see the same flame shining in your hearts, maintained by the same hope you have at your respective levels to satisfy your superiors. We carry you in this divine climbing. Do not lose sight of your guide here below; you are in the same world, his action facilitates your progress. This rule is imperative. More than once, we have underlined the necessity for a living Master, and an utmost mutual confidence. It must be factually reflected without other implications, and not remain a purely theoretical view. With time and the work being carried out in the hearts, these concepts become clearer for each of our candidates, who each have their own motivations. Time, and only time, can shape the paths that make it possible to more accurately target the sought-after goal."
