Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Wednesday, May 29, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

Your life is exactly as was planned even before it became effective on this Earth. You accepted the modalities of its course and it unfolds accordingly. Rejoice to be able to take advantage of all that was planned and to receive these messages, which we inspire in you each day. We often told you, life has surprises in store and so will it be until the end of your life here below; nothing is decided in advance and definitively. Each page turned calls for another one until the word 'end' appears in filigree on the great book of time. The web of destiny does not forget anything essential to the process of a soul. Its major aspiration is to turn to the sublime source from which it originates. Going past each wave and freshly taking heart, it advances seaward, knowing that it is undertaking its longest voyage. But serenity dwells in it; its force comes from the depths where the Divine Presence – attentive to its efforts, to its courage to conquer out of love the obstacles inherent in any life and which lead to victory – manifests itself."
