Whispers from The Brighter World

A Third Revelation

Saturday, June 1, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

A lifetime is unique; nothing can replace its educational dimension. Each moment is enlightening. Seen from this aspect, it energises the existence of humans. It is better to accept setbacks rather than to mope. It is not always easy to adopt this state of mind; the passing of time and growing wisdom facilitate such an approach. Each day adds a touch to this huge picture, the overall spirit of which is by and large set at your level; it is enough for you to polish up its details. You generally apply yourself to it meticulously. Your sadhana transforms you from inside and allows you to add depth and to smooth off the rough edges, here and there. Seen from this aspect, life takes on a different significance and motivates one positively, which makes this spiritual landscape more interesting. It is about you, about your becoming, and about your fulfilment as a human being, but especially about your spiritual development in the most satisfactory manner. As soon as you know exactly what you want to get and why you must act like that, there is no limit to what we can hope for. You are on the right track. You are fully aware of it and you act with complete freedom, well determined to shape the divine life, the divine being which you already foresee."
