Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

an't you trust us quite simply, and wait and see the future outcome of this matter before being worried? Everything in life is based on confidence especially as far as spirituality is concerned. Events do not necessarily happen according to the wishes of a human being. In broad outline, it depends on his karma. This concept is not easily accepted in your societies where it is not recognised as a deep truth conveyed by religion. Never mind, it exists nevertheless, and our aspirants are aware of it. Man must submit to this requirement and accept it. Such is the Law. To rebel does not serve any purpose, apart from adding another negative element to the tendencies that already complicate his life. We will come back to surrender, a key element to a true spiritual process. What you deem good for you may not be so. You do not have the necessary hindsight to judge. Accepting the disappointments and the tests brings man to a great inner strength. He learns how to face up to things, knowing that this storm is momentary and that the main thing is safeguarded."
