Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Sunday, June 9, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

How many hearts will make reference to our writings; can you guess it? There will be many of them who, believe me, will identify with you in many circumstances, when you are cited in these messages. There is nothing to be embarrassed about; there is indeed a famous precedent with the messages given by Master Jesus to his medium. Contrary to her [Jesus' medium], you wish to remain in obscurity; we understand it. The main thing for you is that you have done this work in a state of utmost surrender. You have always followed my instructions; the moment has come now for my son to take part in our exchanges. That will reinforce your bonds. Everything must take place in complete harmony; we so wish. These messages are above all your property; your courage and your perseverance have called them into existence. Your life influenced them deeply; it inspired them. It is normal for you to decide about them. Your veneration of your Master and the progress you have made towards him will make your contacts easier. The Divine guide for both of you is happy to see this coming together; he is as happy about it as a child."
