Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Saturday, June 15, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

To show how very strong a bond between two souls can be, and how love develops to the extent of completely taking over the heart exposed to its action – such was our goal. A spiritual process without love would hide its beauty; only love can give it the appropriate lights. The most beautiful landscape can take on its real worth only if it is haloed with a light highlighting all the contours and evolving according to the hour of the day. Love also takes on different accents, according to the circumstances, and gets carried away in the privileged moments when the soul communes with its Beloved. This kind of love can enrich the most banal existence, giving to it, furthermore, a very special joy that cannot be described. We have already spoken so much about love; we could revert to it endlessly. Is there anything more beautiful than these blessed moments, which transport you to other places and make you forget everything? Build yourself this sanctuary, protected from the turbulences of life, where you will be able to feed on celestial songs in deepest silence."
