Your dear children-in-heart will be able to respect your will. You did not place your confidence in them in vain. It is normal that in this lifetime you wish to keep a certain number of messages which you deem personal. Time will make sure that what must be done is done. Nobody should force any decisions on you; rest assured on this point. I reacted in the same way when I was on this Earth. Why couldn't you have, what you call, a secret garden?

"The movements of your heart and your states of soul must be respected. We conform to them, just as you do yourself in terms of what we expect of you.

"Be at peace, my child, and especially, spare yourself. Won't you?"
