Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Sunday, June 16, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

We should, all of us, conform to a higher will. That is the way it goes, the divine laws must be rigorously followed wherever we may be, and whoever we may be. In the higher spheres where we are, each one is respected in their individuality, and is united with all, according to the divine order. It all takes place with the greatest rigour, with the aim of establishing a universal and lasting peace. Respect for one's fellow man is the primary quality; everything is based on this principle. That is how it should be on the Earth. Divine love starts at this stage since each being living on this planet originates from the same source. The laws are very strict in this aspect; to harm one's fellow man is a heavy handicap on the evolutionary path of the soul. To become better and tolerant must be, for each one, the objective to be reached. Judgement is destructive; it harms the human condition seriously. A man who gets himself trapped in this process, slows down his own evolution seriously."
