This diving into yourself, is it not worth all the joys of this world? The depth of your mystical life must enable you to realise that. The more you will advance on this way, the more you will be detached from useless aspects. Your priorities will no longer be the same ones; see the progress you have already made in this spirit. You are not the same any more; a heart enamoured of the absolute develops beyond the appearances of your own personality. You keep calling in you the divine greatness, its force and its gentleness. You will want to be only as one with it, in all the fibres of your body. You would like your soul to merge in it and to exist only by it. You feel pumped up and carried by this force, in these unique moments when you commune intensely.

"Our most fervent candidates, the most mystical, will understand these remarks; they will own them. They will integrate them perfectly and will live them with a heart full of joy. May it remain in them and in all of you who are seeking the Unique, i.e. the Divine."
