Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Friday, June 21, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

Don't forget that I hear your calls; I am the permanent confidant. "The movements of your heart are not unfamiliar to me. Think that the omnipresence of your Masters is such that they can read each being which turns to them. Let your sadness turn into joy, both are so close to each other. Try to experience it and to make sure that this nostalgia becomes a pure joy by making it evolve and become a song of love, which embellishes everything. Think that what you live belongs to a divine plan and give thanks, happily. The spiritual Masters who come to this planet to help humanity know a thousand torments. Their strength lies in deep and unfailing faith. They understand men better than anyone else, seeing them as they really are: i.e. unhappy and grappling with their inner demons, which they do not necessarily control. They do not judge; they act as well as possible to help them overcome their current condition. They love them, quite simply."
