Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Friday, June 21, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

Don't forget your primary vocation, which is to love. Overcome human turpitudes, otherwise your pace will be slowed down. Your process lies elsewhere, so has it been for a long time. You cannot cut yourself off from the world completely; you are a part of it. It is enough to find the right balance; you can find it. By remaining united with ours, your heart knows how to be protected. It conquers, little by little, the vast territory that it has entered. Only wise people follow this way as they have faith in their guide. There, the human reference marks do not exist; it is a different space. This conquest is not simple; it is subjected to laws unknown to men. They have a presentiment of its rigour, and they try to conform to it. This attraction is the strongest; it manifests itself in them, and they cannot resist it as they are subjected to the divine attraction. Nobody can escape its laws. When the moment has come for a soul to turn over towards the celestial heart, everything is done for this intention to be accomplished. Faith attracts, it magnifies the way, which is itself glorified by love. This conquest remains inimitable; it is unique and requires efforts. To arrive at the goal is the greatest success and the outcome of everything."
