Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Saturday, June 22, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

Be centred in the heart of your being where it is all peace and joy, far from the noises of the city, of which it is advisable to forget in these moments. This blessed garden welcomes the song of the angels with happiness. They protect this place that has become liveable. Little by little, the undesirable asperities are eliminated, leaving room for a space that is to be conquered and embellished. All is possible in this holy place where the vibration is light. Its subtle perfume is love which one can guess before even feeling its captivating effect. This rapture is fleeting, but so gratifying for the heart of the wise man. Very often, faith makes him follow this way, which brings him onto enchanting banks in bloom. In these places, he can praise God just as he likes, far from the artifices of the world where everything is distorted by an illusory veil. This melodious song delights your soul, my child. Think of all beings on this Earth, as well as yourself, who follow the same process: uniting with God with a receptive heart. Let yourself be carried by this ceaseless wave, giving you an outline of the celestial bliss."
