Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

My child, turn towards your Master more and more. Our relationship is special, for it lies at another level. Your heart has the capacity to love us so much. Your life is not ordinary; you can shift from one world to the other, complying with the requirements of each one of them. Love energises you, and it ennobles your progress. You found your suitable way, following both the multitude and a unique way, which is moulding you. Your heart has managed to create its own laws, as it was conquered by love a long time ago. It can, despite everything, conform to ours and remain in its own place. We appreciate this passion that drives you, that makes you fight and remain strong through the storm. It is good to observe a heart like yours, so wild in its impulses and so balanced in serving us. Why not reflect on your case? Each day, we take possession of the place to dictate our remarks to you, which are not to your liking today since they are about you. Accept them – won't you? – and let them be properly accommodated herein; we ask you to do so."
