Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Wednesday, June 26, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

Why should your heart be limited to the momentary fluctuations that trouble your life? It is making progress, freed from what does not relate to it. Spiritual life is structured on other levels, according to a quite precise and immutable framework. You appreciate this correspondence that gives another meaning to your life; it becomes essential to your two hearts, which find the same echoes in one another. As far as you are concerned, these exchanges shed another light onto your existence. Could its interesting part reside outside the realm of your spiritual activities? You are not the only person for whom pursuing one's life would become heavy without the mystical aspect that gives it its true dimension. This treasure cannot be removed, but can only be extended more and more, and can gratify hearts that are the most enamoured of the Absolute. There is no limit to this noble aspiration. This kind of conquest is accessible to all. We can only support it and encourage it, with all our blessings."
