Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Friday, June 28, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

I am by your side and you know it. Why would you like this to change? Only humans are changeable. Their mood changes according to the day and the hour. Let your heart remain as it is, loving and not fluctuating with the passing of time. In the area of spirituality, it is steadfastness, stability, and will that make you progress. One should not dabble in following a spiritual way. This work requires a minimum amount of personal investment to bear fruit. The reward will result from the effort. Our faithful aspirants know it well. Some of them, after having gone through moments of lassitude, thereafter set out again more convinced than ever. Perseverance is necessary for any progress. It generates the greatest successes.

"Our work must rest on yours; it is the very nature of things. Thus we walk on together and we lay the foundations of a new humanity, where all right and good things are properly accommodated."
