Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

These contacts over so many years, are they not the evidence of our approval, with regard to your work? You are no exception to the rule, my daughter. Human nature is like that; it needs to be reassured. Encouragements motivate its action and support its performances. The human being is greatly complex; the most refined among them – in terms of their perceptions and their analyses, however thorough they may be – cannot grasp its reality. Man's heart is a vast area, the secrets of which are not accessible to all his fellow men. We enter it through the spiritual work, which lays bare the biggest part of this space. We are working to that end, and this action results from the confidence being placed in us. We don't violate this reserved domain, where we read like an open book without the least accent escaping us. We are working not to judge, but to tune the sounds of a highly precious instrument, since it is the stronghold of a divine presence."
