Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Monday, July 8, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

As one path ends another starts; life is movement, action. Man must advance at all costs and adapt to all situations. So it will be until the end. A spiritual practice provides continuity in this existence – stability, a kind of foothold that is not affected by the fluctuations of time. Everything outside can change. Preserve this only good that remains with time. This refuge cannot be taken away from you; it belongs to you. This richness escapes the laws of men, who are always on the lookout for dispossessing their fellow man. In this area, God is watchful! He is almighty. Highly enlightened beings come to this world to help their brothers to free themselves from human bondages. These Masters, as they are called, help the whole of humanity through work that escapes man's assessment. Their action cannot be measured; but it is powerful and in line with the forces of good, which have a lot to do so that humanity can progress towards the long-established goal. It will all be accomplished according to this scale of evolution which regulates its rise."
