Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Friday, July 12, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

My daughter, you are the soul of these messages; without you, they would not exist. It is normal that you decide on what should be done in terms of handing them to one who must ultimately peruse them: your Master. The language barrier represents a difficulty that needs, in the first instance, to be dealt with as well as possible so that the process can accelerate. You can understand his impatience to learn more about them; therefore, you should do as best you can and as per your inspiration. You must find a sure means of communication, without uncontrollable interferences that would hinder the system of emails. There is a problem at this level that needs resolving to avoid hindering the exchanges necessary for the effectiveness of the work related to these messages. My son must be able to submit mails with all required discretion and reliability, to avoid the risk of the process being blocked. The expert will find the means to counter this difficulty. We encourage you to find the necessary motivation and to advance in this work. We bless you especially, you all who apply yourselves to it."
