Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Monday, July 15, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

Time and again, we have reverted to the same points to help you understand how simple our teaching is. It does not relate to high misty theories, which must make people reflect lengthily on their meaning before understanding them. The way of the heart does not burden itself with useless twists and turns; it is clear and luminous for those who actually want to see it in its simplicity. Its effectiveness stems from this beauty that can be easily discovered through a joyful and trustful approach. Here, there are no erudite words, no tortuous practices, and no scourging, only a process followed scrupulously, in absolute confidence of the final success. There is no cudgelling of one's mind; why should the sincere abhyasi do it? He has all the elements. He follows his Master with confidence; the past is abolished, and only the present and the future matter. He sees only the outcome of his spiritual search, by making a clean sweep within himself, i.e., in his heart, loving and offered for the good cause."
