Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Saturday, July 20, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

Your heart calls the Master, to whom you entrusted it. It is in pressing need and it expresses it intensely. These states are very positive; they show how big the thirst for the Divine is inside it. This thirst is decisive for the action of the spiritual Master who meets the needs of the heart. The request, being important, justifies the resulting specific work. A fervent heart does not remain ignored. All its impulses testify to its progress; they are productive. Nothing can be done to force someone out of half-heartedness; that does not encourage repeated actions likely to propel it to the highest level.

"Ask and you will receive; it is in the nature of things. A loving heart is insatiable; it attracts favours. As this need becomes constant, only grace can answer it. Do not lose sight of this aspect of constant remembrance, so misunderstood in our way. There is a whole training process to carry out in this area. As the aspirant advances, he finds for himself the paths that are the most favourable to access. They are on no account governed by the intellect; only the heart can choose what is appropriate for it."
