Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Sunday, July 21, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

Continue to love God, to love us with all your soul; it is by loving that you advance. This call in you is so strong that it cannot leave one insensitive. You are following the way of the great mystics of the past and the present, for whom only love matters above all. Let yourself be carried by this powerful force that nurtures your heart and your life. Give priority to its action, in and around yourself. Love is the antidote to the evil that corrodes this world. It must extend in an enabling environment and conquer the place. Glorify it; make it known through these writings just as was done by others of the same kind before. They seem anachronistic in this world in madness where many noises – including the sounds of mad music – stress humans who are subjected to them. They are caught in this spiral, which ends up to be deemed normal by some of them. They flee themselves; they do not listen any more to their inner voice that would like to warn them against this plague – i.e. modern life – to both their physical and psychic balance. May the voice of wisdom prevail one day among mankind, and make them reject all that is opposed to it."
