Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Monday, July 22, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

The big day is approaching for my son. This event is increasing on a scale that disconcerts him a little, but it shows him how big a place he has in the hearts of the abhyasis. Our Mission has the Master it deserves; he is great in many respects. In these special situations, he can realise the impact of his work. Actually he cannot really assess it, as the manifestations that prepare the future are so vast.

"Water seeps through the soil and feeds it even before any outward signs of its action surfaces on the ground. We have every reason to be satisfied with this commemoration; the assessment is very positive. Our Revered Lalaji can extend with satisfaction his eyes on the territories conquered for a just and noble cause aimed at ennobling the souls. What he brought to us has spread and helped many hearts to turn to the Divine. All these results are only the beginnings of a great victorious march against darkness, which extends on this planet too much."
