Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Wednesday, July 24, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

A true devotion emerges from all these gatherings – big or small – aimed at celebrating the birthday of my son. An immense step has been taken in this direction. We can see in this not only the love he inspires, but also the expansion of the Mission in the world, under the effect of his action. It is a special moment of grace for all the fervent hearts that take a break in their often-troubled lives to express their faith and their determination to forge ahead in their spiritual life. They understand that nothing is worth neglecting it. Time will come in this incarnation when an assessment will be essential, and when everything, except this special work, will become anecdotal. We are happy to see the growing number of souls that are waking up. The divine splendour subjugates them and attracts them. Their way is henceforth open. They join the multitude on the move towards the so-much-hoped-for realisation. May this blessed day benefit all those who, one way or the other, are united through the heart with their divine Master."
