Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Thursday, July 25, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

Your heart is getting refined, your perceptions, too. Our contacts are not limited to these time-bound appointments; they are frequent. You remain available and receptive, your priorities being well defined. This is how you are making progress; giving one's heart means giving it fully. There is no dilly-dallying. In this matter, commitment must be complete, thus is a true mystic. He made his choices, his life is structured according to this special planning – nothing, nothing and nobody, imposes anything on him. When the moment has come, it is the soul that becomes demanding in its need to love and to be offered. Touched by grace, it turns definitively towards him who calls him. Thus is the process of a strong soul, resolutely committed in the service. There are many stages to reach before arriving at this level of perceptiveness which is such that, without hesitation, the heart can be offered completely. It is a great step being made towards Him, who in His great wisdom does guide him so well when he is ready for this great voyage."
