Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Thursday, August 1, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

Your two hearts united in the divine love let themselves express their joy. Be more and more united with your Master; it is comforting to know that you are understood and helped. Reaching this degree of surrender is a grace. There is no need for complicated formulas to describe an unexplainable state; it has its source in the depths of the being and has to be lived intensely. Reason has nothing to do with this exaltation of the soul; it originates from very far in time. This stage being reached, it becomes superfluous to ask oneself questions. It is enough to let oneself be carried by this unique force and to advance with confidence. All the answers to the questions likely to arise are in the heart of man. It is all simple; God is everything. He encompasses everything and He is inside you. One's approach to Him is carried out in the greatest simplicity, with the heart of a child, a peaceful mind in spareness and surrender.

"Only this way can lead to the truth for anyone seeking it through an intellectual process. It puts one on the right track, but the most important thing remains to be done. A whole secret alchemy takes place without knowledge based on human reasoning. It is good to feed it in various ways, but in the final analysis, other criteria come into the picture to facilitate the process of a searching heart. Practise with fervour, love your Master, follow him in the way he shows you; he is your divine guide."
