Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Friday, August 2, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

When you leave this world, you will see life from a different perspective. You will realise the narrow-mindedness of humans. However enlightened they may be, they remain within the limits of the nets of maya. Except for some special beings that are superior to them for higher reasons, it is all limited to the conventions of this world. Among our most convinced candidates practising with rigour, there is a certain number who remain tied to beliefs limited to those established by men. It is not easy to raise the veil of centuries of erroneous theses built to support a domineering attitude over mankind, which is taken aback by its own weaknesses. We can only remain within the current possible limits. Our aim is to help them spiritually, while giving them the necessary means."
