Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Monday, August 5, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

You mix with your brothers, who are also on the way. They have not reached a high level of perfection, neither have you. There are gaps in them; do you think you don't have such gaps yourselves? Attention towards others is part and parcel of work on oneself. You are not advancing alone, and this fact alone must make you lenient with the shortcomings of others. The larger a family, the more diverse it is in terms of characters and behaviours. To remain united, it needs love, and also the greatest tolerance. Never lose sight of the main thing, i.e. what you are looking for within the Mission. See its objectives and the greatness of your guide, who leads you towards the goal."
