Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Wednesday, August 7, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

My dear daughter, a new stage of your life is unfolding before you, entirely based on spirituality. You have all the elements for that: everything is said, proven and given to allow you to advance under the best of conditions. You know that it is all in vain here below; what will remain of your life is only what you would have acquired in this field. Give priority to what you have come for; the rest has only relative importance. In the last evening of your life, you will turn the page without regret, while looking towards new horizons where your destiny is written. This stay on Earth is a mere episode, an opportunity to progress and acquire some additional assets for the great voyage ahead. Be well determined not to waste any more time; we grant you our confidence. You have all our love."
