Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Sunday, August 11, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

We will always have a good reason to give you a message, as long as you will be willing to receive it. It is only up to you to stop, but we don't see you prepared to do so. When people around you don't follow you any more for lack of interest, you will be allowed to keep these writings to yourself; we will not feel offended. As far as you are concerned, they maintain your faith and they give a deep sense to your life. Follow what your heart tells you, my child; it cannot mislead you. We will always follow you, whatever happens, don't worry about this. It is important for us to thus show to you, and to our readers, that you are on a personal path, but that you are not alone to do so. You can count on our attention; you cannot doubt it. It is not expressed the way you wish it to be, nor as often as you wish, but our views are different from yours. We look in a very different direction. Have faith in us; this is an important point without which no constructive relationship can be established. Surrendering to the Divine, and the resulting love, do consolidate the bonds. All is possible when these conditions are met. We can advance together on this luminous road which you chose, and under our higher protection."
