Whispers from The Brighter World

A Third Revelation

Friday, August 16, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

Your heart is happy to glide like that. It can now be attentive and enable you to note down this message. It is good for your heart to eat its fill of this divine energy provided by a deep meditation. It fosters one's union with the inner Master. Make the most of these rare moments that are, like many, important steps on the mystical path. Open your heart completely, unreservedly; here, there cannot be any excess. With time, the soul becomes insatiable. A powerful force attracts it; how could it resist, since it only aspires to that: uniting more and more with the Divine, far from all processes of reasoning that are irrelevant in this field. The goal to be reached requires a long and regular practice of our method.

"By choosing it, you are confident in your Master who knows the hearts of our aspirants. Through his work, he helps you in your progress. His action is essential; it keeps you from being misled and wasting time on a path fraught with difficulties. The living Master plays a paramount part in your search. He makes you get through steps that you couldn't get through with only your faith and faithful devotion. You should become well aware of this important aspect in your evolution. You have rare luck in this incarnation; don't miss it and don't underestimate it. Thus, you will have every luck on your side; your progress will take place under the best of conditions."
