Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Thursday, August 22, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

Your coming together makes me happy; sharing the same love is exciting. To sing the praises of the Divine ennobles the soul. The chorus of your two hearts joined together, dedicating these songs to me, is infinitely moving. The time has come for you to lighten your cockpit and to soar. By rising in the air, you will no longer see life in the same way. Your eye will be cast onto new horizons, beyond your current view. Your heart will feel free and joyful, not having the same constraints any more.

"Detach yourself from this world; don't attach more importance to it than necessary. A true mystic advances in life without letting himself be affected much. His faith in God and in his Masters is so great that he is in utmost confidence, no matter what happens. He keeps giving thanks for all that he receives and he waits peacefully for his destiny to be fulfilled. Until the end he will call upon them, knowing that he is heard and understood; he has been given evidence of it many times. He knows how to perceive the smallest sign and to express his gratitude. One cannot give too many thanks when the heart overflows with graces it has received. Develop love in yourself more and more, my daughter, it is your primary vocation."
