Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Thursday, August 29, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

Don't you see me in front of you? Don't you feel in your heart this wave of love that usually marks the beginning of our contact? The curtain of your thoughts was a hindrance; it has been raised and we can now start. The lack of receptivity is an obstacle to meditation. The heart must keep itself clear to escape the swirl of life – which must remain outside this call from the soul – and be united with the Divine. It is thirsty for this unique vibration that wins it over when the state of vacuity is reached. The heart can then relish this grace that fills it with joy. This kind of ritual, accomplished in the silence of the place and the heart, brings about new forces produced by this encounter with a distinguished guest resulting from our perseverance in calling him. This state becomes accessible during a profound meditation; make sure that it recurs as often as possible; it will strengthen your heart and you will enjoy its benefits."
